

No person shall allow a person under the age of 18 to be or remain on the premises.

No person shall appear in a state of nudity or engage in sexual activity.

No person shall appear in a semi-nude condition unless the person is an employee who, while semi-nude, remains at least six (6) feet from all patrons. A semi-nude employee shall also remain on stage while semi-nude. The stage must be in a room of at least 600 square feet.

No employee who appears semi-nude in this establishment shall touch a customer or the clothing worn by a customer while on the premises, and no customer shall touch such an employee or the employee's clothing.

Any violation of these rules is a violation of Fort Wayne ordinances.

For the full text of these regulations, see Fort Wayne Code § 121.16
